NEW YORK DRY GOODS.

New York, November 17.-Trade for the day was quiet in dry goods, although many unfilled orders were in at to be advanced next week. The demand for white goods continues strong Staple prints are being reordered by western and southern buying and there is a better export trade. Heavy cottons and heavy colored goods were in the better demand.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET. New York, November 17 .- The revived speculation was actively continued today under the influence of the brightening prospects in the money market. The principal dealings spread to some new quarters and it was obvious that some distribution was being effected of the stocks which have figured most prominently in the previous sharp advances. Union Pacific was the conspicuous new favorite and the demand was stimulated by glowing rumors of the tenor of the forthcoming annual report. Meantime St. Paul, the Hill stocks, Reading, Amalgamated Copper and Southern Pacific
